

International School Mainfranken

The International School Mainfranken is an international learning community dedicated to providing a quality education for every student, while promoting international appreciation and perspective. Our learning community is based on the concepts of shared responsibility and respect among staff, teachers, parents, and most importantly the students.

Our Mission

The International School Mainfranken (ISM) is committed to offering a holistic, challenging, internationally minded learning experience that develops the social, creative and intellectual aspects of each student.

ISM is looking for an experienced Mathematics Teacher.

Starting 1 Aug 2019	Apply By 28 Feb 2019	Minimum Qualification Bachelor	Cover Letter Required	Minimum Experience 2 years
------------------------	-------------------------	-----------------------------------	--------------------------	-------------------------------

Ideally the candidate would possess the ability to teach Mathematics in Middle and High School.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree
- A teaching qualification (Middle and High School)
- Experience of IB MYP/DP is an advantage

Requirements:

- Two years teaching experience
- Fluency in English to a native level
- Strong collaboration skills and the willingness to develop professionally, be flexible and have a growth mindset
- Strong theoretical and practical experience developing mathematical skills in students
- Demonstrated high levels of involvement with students and colleagues beyond the classroom
- Ability to adapt teaching to meet all students needs and be technologically adept
- Prior experience in an international setting is an asset

If you have further questions, please contact info@the-ism.de.

We use Schrole Connect to manage all teaching applications. If you wish to register your interest with us for a position, please apply through clicking on the following link: <https://jiss-schrole.com/school/International-School-Mainfranken>